ALL OF THEM CUTE

Infant Citizens From Different Parts of the Republic

SHOWN BY PRETTY PICTURES

the Fortnation of Their Characters? Children From Pive Status.

Here are five young American citizens, members of the great republic, con-triots in the state of infancy, but us-

Learn of people who study ethnology any that the formation of character and disposition is very much dependent upon our environments. In a country so vast and as diversified as the United States the people of each section of the country have their own distinctive characteristion. These are seen into clearly in grown people, who have learned more reserve, than in children, who are less reticent

The child brought up in New York is very different from the little Louisiana boy or girl, and the young Pennsylvawritten in every line of her body and at all seasons. fold of her dress. She is chicamt stylish | He is the son of a pioneer, the you and she knows it. Just now she dresses est descendant of a "forty-niner," but and lives very plainly, for she-or rather | he will see a very different life from that her mother-is "quite English." Her his father had known. He will never chief fars is, in consequence, catment experience the rough life or eat the porridge, cream, brown bread and butter, and occasionally a little bacon or a tales of such life will have as much nov-

is a youthful member of the Gotham Four Hundred, and some day will make her debut at a Patriarche bell and he indersed by the Ward McAllister is a bright, somethic, practical littie thing, and frequently astonishes her perents by an unexpected display of her varied learn believed persons and things fundly supposed to be beyond her ken. Her greatest pleasure is to be dressed in her heat clothes and walk in Central park with her English marse, whose curinon-lack, yet occasional superabundance. of his is a constant source of wonder and probably, like many others of his nation, uniformed bewilderment to her. unconsciously she manages to make the of white blood flows in his veins. He is most of sil her good points and to keep | the son of a chief, and in a few years will all her defects in the background. She has been even at this early age to one or two mutiness, and talks quite knowingly in hir baky fushion about the theater.

Very different is this little Pennsylvanian, the is denure, quiet and very server a was, gentle wee girlie, who a good deal of enternal thinking on her own seconds. Whe is not quite as sny as also looks or would have you be-

Erney Sabbath she accompanies her sweet faced, from checked young mother to worship, and a Sunday school picate is her will not dissipation. On such occampa she is quite a bell-among the very yeing goutlemen who take a decorona and soher pleasure in "Ring, Arting Armer," "Green Gravel" and similar skilltree's gumes.

Unlike her New York sister, few partion full to her lot, and theaters also already Riscou are the evil cools spared for the unwery, him can recite by her awar, mit intle a too, with its captivalloue and decidelly superstitious, and when her nurse tells her tales of witcheraft and the terrible fate that befalls little girls who are "hoodooed," her great yes open until they look like stars. With comical gravity she goes through all the little acts intended to avert calamities that also acts intended to avert calamities that also are superstanting that are superstanting to the superstanting that are len west," born in that gla-orious nate where the sun's rays ripen and eten everything. A breezy, whole-ne, unconventional baby, who just new is so busy growing that he has little time for anything else. He is a gener-one, frank, open hearted baby, but though good natured and easy going he us very decided opinions as to his rights and is quick to resent any encroachment

A CALIFORNIA CHILD. His favorite food is fruit, of which he ents quantities all the year round. Ice and snow are unknown to him, for flow-Look at this little girl. New York is ers, fruit and green trees meet his gaze > coarse fare of the miner's camp, and ity and interest for him as for any of as little eastern born cousins.

His complexion is rich and peachy looking, his eyes blue and his hair goldon brown, touched here and there with rleams of sanshine, Mischievous? Well, a little. Not all the time, though, for he sleeps a good deal, but that is about the only time he is not either just beginning a piece of mischief or just finishing it. The last of these young Americans might surprise his predecessors by laying prior claim to the proud title of American, for his ancestors for hundreds of years past owned and possessed this great continent, hunted its forests and Cabed in its rivers.

He himself was born on an Indian reserve in Utah, but when he is older will onformed bewilderment to her.

She is not a beautiful child, but half rarity, a full blooded Indian. Not a drop be sent to one of the government schools, where he will learn all that his white brothers do. He is a copper hood little brave and has all the imperturbability of

> More than an hour ago his dusky mother strapped him against his papers board and left him in it, resting against a tree, yet he makes no complaint, but looks straight in front and blinks his eyes selemnly from time to time.

This is the first time he has ever seen a camera or a white man, and so much normity is a severe strain even upon his beredifary statetem of demember. Despite his best efforts a look of terror and astonishment comes into his face as the less is pointed at him.

Thus it will be seen that our future citizens are as varied in character and disposition as the grand country that is their heritage, and in this diversity of temperament lies much of the strongth of the nation. May all those children grow up to be an honor and glory to the ing lies, accusty all of the Water transa, er's misfortune). I can recommend to BOSTON STORE!

HELEN GEROOMY-PLESSER. The Chark's Rad Break.

GRAND OPENING SALE

LADIES'

WASH FABRICS!

COMMENCING

Monday Morning.

We open tomorrow morning the most complete and superb line of Ladies' and Children's Muslin Underwear ever placed on sale in this city. We have devoted the entire north center aisle to a display of these goods and our importations of Hamburgs and Swiss Embroideries. Our opening of Underwear embrace a range of goods seldom brought together, from the lower and medium qualities to the very fine and daintily trimmed garments of superior make and finish. We shall open the entire range with a special sale for one week, and invite the ladies to a careful inspection.

EMBROIDERIES!

We open our vast lines of the season's importations of Hamburgs and Swiss Embroideries with a special opening sale for this week: The goods are the best value of our experience and in unlimited assorted lots at great bargain prices. Our display for this week will be very extensive and special lots will be offered from all lines.

We have received a great shipment of the first production of Wash Fabrics for spring wear. The goods are magnificent designs and are the first opened in the west. We will give a one week's introduction sale, commencing Monday morning. Special prices on these beautiful goods should draw out a large crowd of ladies. (Dress Goods Department.)

WASH FABRICS!

THE GREAT SALE--Particulars!

Underwear.

Corset Covers, well made, good cotton'

Superior Cambric Corset Covers, prettily trimmed—we offer for this week (in lots) at 17c. 25c, 33c, 371/sc and 50c.

Drawers, well made, good cotton, 23c, 25c, 371/sc, 45c, 50c and 621/sc.

Skirts, 25c, 33c, 371/sc, 50c and 75c (finely trimmed. Chemises, 25c, 37 1/2c, 50c, 62 1/3c, 75c, 87 1/3c. Combination Muslin Garments very cheap for opening week. Gowns 50c, 58c, 621/4c, 75c, 85c, $1.00,

These garments are made of cotton and fine cambric and are beautifully trimmed.

Embroideries.

One lot Hamburg Embroideries at 5c One lot Hamburg Embroideries at 8c One lot Hamburg Embroideries at 10c One lot Hamburg Embroideries at 15c One lot Hamburg Embroideries at 18c One lot Fine Swiss Embroideries at 5c One lot Fine Swiss Embroideries at 10c One lot Fine Swiss Embroideries at 15c One lot Fine Swiss Embroideries at 20c One lot Fine Swiss Embroideries at 25c

Special offering of Matched Set Pieces in medium and Fine Swiss at special prices for our opening sale.

Wash Fabrics.

Satine Glorias is a new fabric, possessing the fineness and smoothness of a gloria and the bright finish of a satine; designs are beautiful—this week 17c per yard.

Brandenberg cloth-will remind ladies of the elegant fabric known as French Organdy; it is heavier, however, and the colorings and printings are exquisite designs of art-fast colors. We offer this fabric in fine assortment for the week at 200 per

A special offering of beautiful Satinesthese goods are to be very fashionable. We effer the assortment, 12 1-20 per yard.

THE WINDOWS!

Our windows will be used this week exclusively to display styles from the great offerings for this week's sale. Every lady should make an effort to see these new goods. They are thorough representations of the magnificent fabrics to be the fashions for the coming spring.

EVERYTHING STRICTLY AS REPRESENTED.

TRANLKA, JAMIESON & CO.

When the grows up also will be a stocking they will keep your feet process of the stocking they will be a pair of the stocking they will be a pair of substitute the stocking they will be a pair of substitute the will be a pair of s